THANK YOU FOR PARTICIPATING IN THE 2025 HUGO, LODESTAR, and ASTOUNDING AWARDS!

The Hugo Award® is the leading award for excellence in the field of science fiction and fantasy. The Hugos were first presented in 1953 and have been awarded every year since 1955 by the members of the World Science Fiction Society (Worldcon members) at the World Science Fiction Convention (Worldcon).

The winners of the 2025 Hugo Awards, Lodestar Award, and Astounding Award for Best New Writer will be announced at a formal ceremony to be held in Seattle on the evening of Saturday, August 16, 2025. Full voting results will be published at that time.

Eligibility to Vote:

You may vote for the 2025 Hugo Awards, the Lodestar Award for Best Young Adult Book, and the Astounding Award for Best New Writer, if you are a Seattle 2025 WSFS member.

How to Vote:

- Mark your choices in each category in order of preference. “1” for first place”, “2” for second place, and so on.
- Unranked means that you are not ranking the finalist.
- A lower preference is considered only if all the candidates ranked higher have been eliminated.
- You are not required to rank all the finalists in any category.
- If you decide not to vote in any given category, leave it blank.
- “No Award” is not an abstention. It means that none of the finalists should be given the award in question.
- If you give preference votes to finalists below your ranking of “No Award”, you vote will count for those finalists if all higher-ranked preferences, including “No Award”, are eliminated.
- If you indicate a preference for “No Award” and leave other finalists blank, your vote will not count for or against those finalists at all.

When the ballots are counted, all the first place votes will be tabulated.

If no finalist receives more than half of the votes, the finalist with the fewest first place votes is eliminated, and their votes are transferred to the finalists with the next preference on those ballots.

This process of elimination of the last-placed finalist and redistribution of their votes to the next available preference continues until one finalist has more than half of all remaining votes, at which point that finalist becomes the winner (except under specific conditions described in Sections 3.6 and 3.12 of the WSFS Constitution found at <http://www.wsfs.org/rules-of-the-world-science-fiction-society/>
